Dear Sir / Madam,

Last weekend it was my boyfriend's birthday and I knew he wanted a pair of blue trainers.

I didn't have much time to get them, so I decided to buy them from your webpage, because you promise fast delivery as well as great prices.

I had some problems with my computer, so I phoned your company directly. You told me that you were sorry but you didn't have the model I liked in blue, only in grey and red. My boyfriend hates red, so I decided to buy them in grey.

You sent them very fast, so I was really happy. But, when my boyfriend opened the box we saw that the trainers were red. I felt terrible! I'm not going to recommend this webpage to anybody.

Dear Sir/Madam,

Last night my family and I visited your restaurant to celebrate my father's 70th birthday. My father loves Italy so when I first saw your pretty Italian restaurant I thought it was a great choice.

The waiter that I spoke to said that you had special menus for special events so I looked on your webpage and saw a perfect menu for the family. I ordered our food online to save time.

When we arrived we had a great table by the window but we all received the wrong meals. The manager explained that they didn't have the vegetable risotto and the spinach lasagne, so he gave us a different option.

I was not happy with the service and the menu that we got. I pre-ordered to be sure to get the food that we wanted. The dinner was a disaster.
