This hotel looked dirty and untidy from outside. But I was very tired and did not know my way around the town of Algeciras, so I decided to stay there. I also decided to stay in this hotel for another reason. The moon was full and it was a clear, bright night. From the hotel I could look out at the sea. I could see the huge rock of Gibraltar in the bright moonlight.

The hotel had a narrow doorway and no name. When I went through the doorway, I had to climb up narrow and dark stairs to the first floor. I came to a small cupboard with a desk in front of it. This was the hotel office.

An untidy and tired woman was sitting beside the desk. When I said I wanted a room for the night, she took me up some more stairs to a room on the second floor. Inside this room the landlord was sitting playing cards with some friends. The landlord did not seem pleased to see me. He was enjoying his game of cards and I was simply a problem. He looked at me when the woman told him that I wanted a room. Then he said, "Room five", and turned back to his game of cards.

The woman, who was obviously the maid, took me to room five. I put my bags on the bed, which did not seem too dirty. Then I went to the window and looked out. I could see the huge Rock of Gibraltar clearly across the bay because the moon was full. I began to feel quite pleased that I had decided to stay the night at that hotel. Then I felt rather hungry and asked the maid if I could have something to eat.

Ashlie: Yes, that's right. I loved coming to Blackpool – the beach, the sunshine, the fish and chips. And the ice cream...

Stephen: And I love the fun park and all the attractions. Come on Ash, this is going to be great!

Kids run more slowly than 30 years ago

The American Heart Association says children are less fit today than 30 years ago. Specialists looked at 25 million children around the world. Today's kids run a kilometre one minute slower than their parents could. How far a child can run is falling every year. One reason for this is kids are too fat. They eat too much and don't do enough exercise.

Doctors are worried. Fatter children will be unhealthier in the future. One doctor said children can have heart problems later in life. He said children needed to "get moving". They must try different activities to keep fit. "They can be flexible like a gymnast and fast as a runner".

3 Thirty years ago children were than today

- A faster
- B slower
- C less fit

4 Children nowadays ...

- A drink too much
- B don't eat enough
- C have a lot of food

5 One doctor said that children should ...

- A eat more
- B do more exercise
- C do fewer activities
