MARK

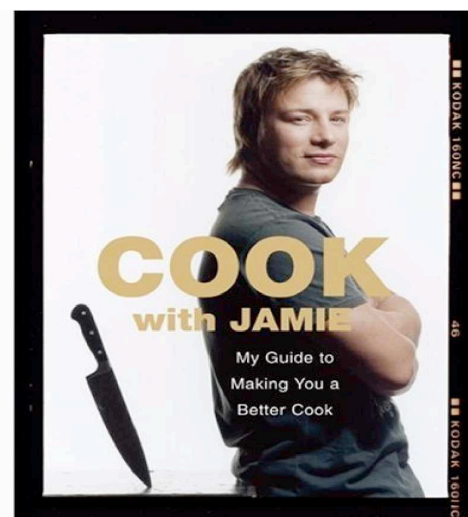

Read the text. For questions 1-6 choose the correct Answer (a, b or c) according to what you read. Write the correct letter in the white box on the answer sheet. Item 0 is given as an example.

Jamie Oliver

I was born in 1975 and straight into the business. My dad ran a lovely pub-restaurant, in Clavering, Essex. I remember it was a cool place, everyone worked together to make that lovely food and laughed while doing it.

By the time I was 11, I wasn't bad at preparing the meals. Many boys at school thought that cooking was a girl's thing. I didn't really care, as I could buy the coolest trainers with the money I earned from working at the weekend.

When I was 16, I didn't really have the results to continue at school and I knew by then that I wanted to be a chef. So I went to Westminster Catering College and then spent some time in France, learning as much as I could, before coming back to London to work as Head Pastry Chef for Antonio Carluccio at The Neal Street Restaurant where I worked for five years.

It was there that I first got in front of a TV camera. A documentary about the restaurant was being filmed and the editors decided to show a friendly man who really liked cooking. The day after the programme was shown; I got calls from five different production companies to talk about a possible show.

The result was "The Naked Chef" programme and that's where it all started. Right now I've never been busier in my life! The only thing is that I would like to have more time for my family - my three lovely girls.

TASK THREE (10 x 0,4 mark = 4 marks)

MARK

Read the text, choose one word for each gap from the words provided and write the answers in the appropriate white box on the answer sheet. There are five words you will not need. Item 0 is given as an example.

EARTH DAY HISTORY

In the Beginning...

In 1963, former Senator Gaylord Nelson began to worry (0) about our planet. (A senator is a person that the (1)_____ of the United States have chosen to help make the laws.) Senator Nelson knew that our world was getting dirty and that many of our plants and animals were (2)_____.

He wondered why more people weren't trying to solve these problems. He talked to other lawmakers and to the President. They (3)_____ that the President would go around the country and tell people about these concerns. He did, but still not enough people were working on the problem.

The Idea

Then, in 1969, Senator Nelson had another idea. He decided to have a special day to teach everyone about the things that needed changing in our environment. He (4)_____ letters to all of the colleges and put a special article in Scholastic Magazine to tell kids about the special day he had planned. (Most of the schools got this magazine and he knew that (5)_____ would help him.)

The Holiday

On April 22, 1970, the first Earth Day was held. Earth Day is supposed to be a day when every person promises to do something to (6)_____ take care of our world. Everyone got involved and since then, Earth Day has spread all over the planet. People all over the world know that there are problems we need to work on and this is our special day to look at the planet and see what (7)_____ changing. Isn't it great?

A science teacher, Mrs. Green was telling us how many companies are (8)_____ careful about what they do with their industrial waste. She said that our world is getting dirtier and that many forests are disappearing and many animals are in danger of extinction. She wanted us to think of something we could do to help and she thought all the way home there was nothing she could do. "I can't stop the companies from (9)_____ our air and water and I can't save all of the animals! There is not anything that I can do to make a difference."

One person had an idea and kept working until everyone began working (10)_____ to solve it. See what happens when people care about our world?
