TAREA 1 AT THE LANGUAGE SCHOOL

- Hello. Can I have information about buses to Cambridge, please?
- Certainly. Morning, afternoon or evening buses?
- Well. Afternoon, please.
- There are buses at 12:45, and 14:10
- How much are the tickets?
- They're 15.40 for adults and 7.30 for children under eight.
- Fine. Where can I buy the tickets?
- You can only buy the tickets at the central bus station at Raleigh street. I'll spell it for you. That's R, a, l, e, i, g, h, street.
- R, a, l, e, i, g, h?
- That's right.
- I only have three hours to walk around Cambridge. What do you recommend?
- Well, if you only have three hours, I recommend you take the walking tour of Cambridge University. It takes two hours. And then, of course, you can visit All Saints' Church. It's a wonderful historic building. You can also go to the Cambridge Arts' Theatre. They have an interesting free place for students.
- Ok. I think I have all the information I need. Thanks for your help.

TAREA 2 "TRAVEL WELL" AGENCY

Agent: Good morning. Can I help you?

Alice: I would like some information about a trip to Mauritius.

Agent: Is it just you travelling?

Alice: No. Me and my boyfriend.

Agent: Right - so a double room, then. How long would you like to stay?

Alice: I'm not sure, a week, a fortnight?

Agent: Mauritius is a long way away, and the flight takes a long time. I would recommend that you stay for two weeks minimum – it's beautiful too, you won't want to leave!

Alice: All right, a fortnight then.

Agent: I can offer you Paradise Hotel and Belleview Hotel. Both are very comfortable, and the beach is only a walk away.

Alice: And what facilities do they have?

Agent: Well, Paradise has 50 rooms and is a big complex with swimming pools, discos and restaurants. The Belleview is not that big, and it's more of a family hotel with facilities for children. It has a swimming pool and a disco, but no restaurants or room service.

Alice: I think we'd prefer the Paradise. We don't really like children that much and I'd like to have breakfast in bed. But, how much are they both?

Agent: They're both the same Price – 70 pounds a night, breakfast included.

Alice: OK, then I prefer the Paradise.

Agent: When would you like to leave?

Alice: Around 23rd of March.

Agent: There's a flight on 24th of March coming back on 6th April.

Alice: That sounds right. One more day to pack. By the way, what's the weather like in Mauritius?

Agent: It's tropical, sunny and warm most of the time.

Alice: What sort of clothes should I take then?

Agent: Mostly casual clothes: shorts and T-shirts and, of course, a bikini. And pack your party dress for the evening!

Alice: Thanks very much for your help. One last thing, can I pay by credit card?

Agent: We accept Visa. It will be 1320 pounds per person for the hotel, the plane tickets and the airport taxes.

Alice: Wow! It better be good! Here you are.

Agent: Sign here, please. Thanks very much and enjoy your holiday.

Alice: We will! Bye.
