

CANDIDATE A

Monologue

10 marks

You have three minutes to prepare the task and about three minutes to tell your partner about the topic.
You can take some notes to help you out during the talk, but only as a reference

Tell us about how you look after yourself. Have you ever been to a spa? Do you regularly go to a gym? Think about

- Diet, the type of food that you eat
- Exercise, any sports or routines that you follow
- Beauty treatments and massage....

Dialogue

15 marks

You have five minutes to prepare the task and five minutes to speak and interact with your partner.
You can take some notes to help you out during the conversation, but only as a reference.

You have flown from Boston to London and when you went to pick up your luggage your suitcase was missing. You must now go to the lost luggage desk to report it missing. Remember to describe the item, colour, size, material and any tags attached to it or special features, content...

You begin the conversation

CANDIDATE B

Monologue

10 marks

You have three minutes to prepare the task and about three minutes to tell your partner about the topic.
 You can take some notes to help you out during the talk, but only as a reference

Talk about a celebration you have recently attended: a wedding, a birthday party, an anniversary, someone's promotion. Remember to mention, where, when, who with and what exactly happened.

Dialogue

15 marks

You have five minutes to prepare the task and five minutes to speak and interact with your partner.
 You can take some notes to help you out during the conversation, but only as a reference.

You are working at the lost luggage desk at Heathrow Airport in London. A passenger will now report a missing piece of luggage. Prepare the questions to obtain the necessary information to find the suitcase and to return it to the owner.

- Where he/she is coming from and air company
- The description of the item
- His/her address in the UK
- Be polite and helpful

Your partner will begin the conversation