You want to join a sports club that organizes sports activities in your neighborhood. You have seen this information on the noticeboard of your local Sports Club:

HEALTHY LIVING
Sports Club

Our Sports Club organizes sports activities in this sports center and outdoors every day of the week. Currently we have a tennis group, a basketball and a football team. We also go on hiking excursions every two weekends.

If you are interested in becoming a member of the club or just want more information, please email John Woodward at: jw.healthylivingclub@gmail.com

Write an email to the contact provided considering the following points:

- The sports activity you would like to take part in and why.
- Say when you are free during the week and at the weekend.
- Ask for any extra information about the club (fees, age of the members, timetables, etc.)

Use the space below to note down and organise your ideas.
These notes will not be marked.

MARK

OPTION 1

It's International Book Day and your teacher has asked you to write about your love of reading. The texts will be placed on the boards in the school hall for people to read and on the school webpage. The title of the text is:

Why I like reading

Write your text considering the following points:

- When you first started enjoying reading.
- The kind of books you like.
- Why you think reading is a pleasure.

OPTION 2

Your school magazine is going to publish students' articles explaining the positive aspects of learning a language. You are going to participate writing a text entitled:

Learning a language is a great idea

Write your text considering the following points in your writing:

- Why you chose the language you are studying.
- How speaking different languages can be useful.
- Why it is something you would recommend doing or not.
