Your Italian friend Giulia – who has a 9-year-old daughter – has moved to London. She has sent you a WhatsApp and a picture of the letter her daughter gave her after school. Her level of English is not as good as yours, and she needs your help. Write her a Whatsapp and tell her what the letter is about (45 – 65 words). (5 marks)

* NEW Homework Policy*

Dear Parents,

As you all know, homework is any work or activity which students are asked to do and complete outside lesson time either during private study or at home. Homework is given at the teacher's discretion and is intended to encourage students to develop confidence to become independent learners.

After thinking so much about it during the summer, I am going to try something new. Homework will only consist of work that your child did not finish during the school day. There will be no formally assigned homework this year.

Research has been unable to prove that homework improves student performance. Instead, I'd like to ask you to spend your evenings doing things that can also lead to students' success. Eat dinner as a family, read together, play outdoors, and get your child to bed early.

Thanks.
Mrs. Brandy Young

Hi!

Don't worry about the homework! I've read the letter and here is the most important information that you need to know:

Handwriting practice lines consisting of horizontal lines for writing.

Take care!

Your dear friend 😊
