WORK

Your friend is applying for a job. Use the infographic below to help you give him/her 3 tips with explanations or examples of how to write a good CV.

HOW TO FORMAT A CV FOR SUCCESS

A strong CV format is crucial to your success in the job market. Creating a pleasant reading experience for recruiters and allowing them to find the information they need quickly, will lead to plenty more responses and interviews.

KEEP IT SIMPLE

Simplicity is key when creating a CV that needs to be read and understood by busy recruiters and employers.

Stay away from whacky designs, photos and logos

Opt for a clean and simple font

Focus more on content, and less on style

PROVIDE A PLEASANT READING EXPERIENCE

Recruiters and hiring managers read lots of CVs, so make yours nice and easy to read if you want your message to be conveyed properly.

Divide sections of your CV clearly

Head roles up with bold titles

Break text up as much as possible

MAINTAIN A PROFESSIONAL OUTLOOK

Your CV is your marketing material for your services to employers, and as such it needs to reflect a professional image.

Keep your email address professional (no nicknames)

Write in a formal and punchy tone

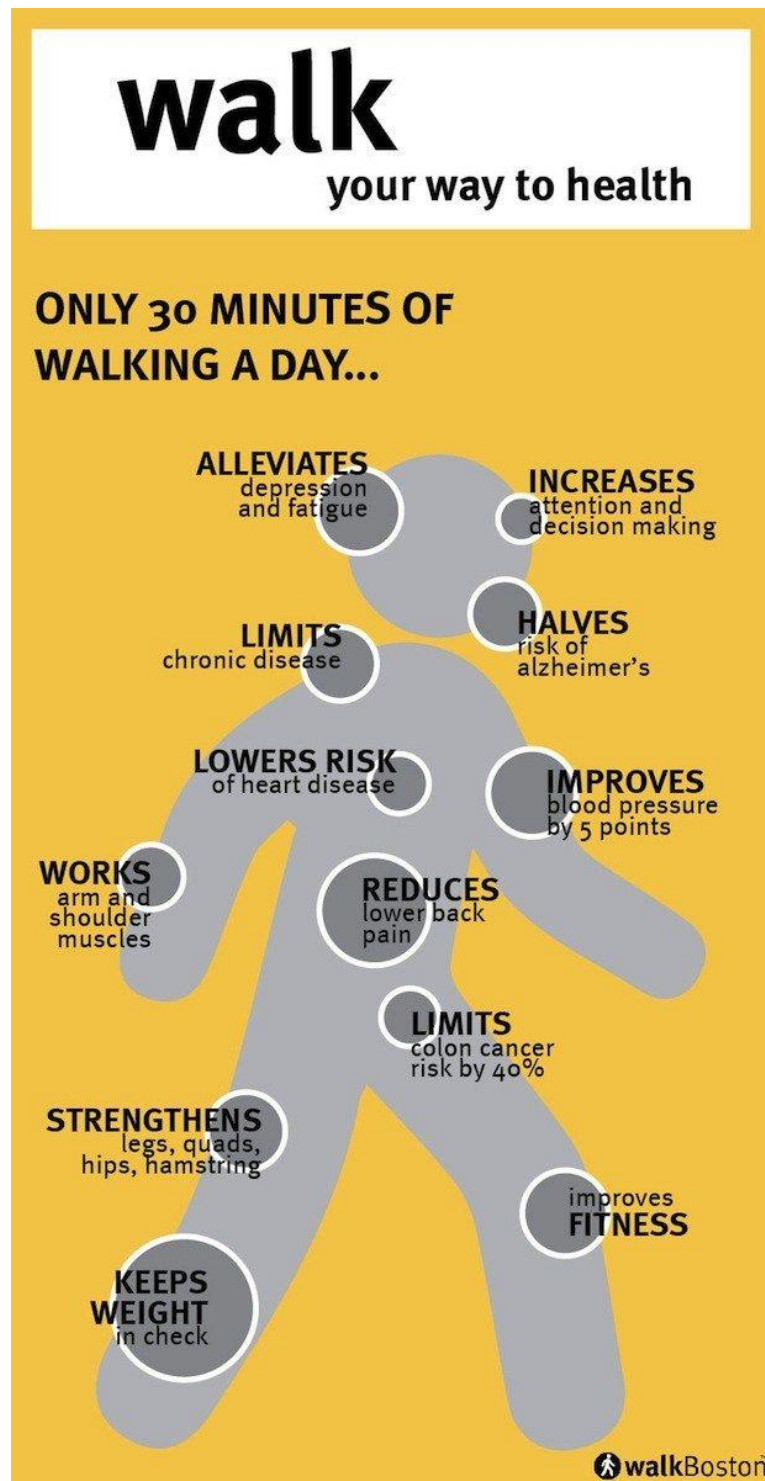

Triple check for spelling and grammar mistakes

FIRST AID

You have been talking in class about health and first aid. Your teacher asks you to prepare a presentation with the contents of the poster below.

ACRONYMS SAVE LIVES.

If your friend is funny, you ROTFL. When he does something crazy, it's OMG. WHAT IS IT WHEN SHE COLLAPSES AND DOESN'T RESPOND?

SCA

Sudden cardiac arrest is what happens when the heart stops beating, suddenly and unexpectedly. SCA takes the lives of thousands of students every year and is the #1 CAUSE OF DEATH OF STUDENT ATHLETES. Use your hands and your acronyms.

CALL 911. DO CPR. GET AED.

AED

An automated external defibrillator is the ONLY device that can save someone in cardiac arrest. It checks the heart and delivers a shock, if needed. It tells you exactly what to do, so if you can jump a car, you can jump a heart.

CPR

Chest compressions keep blood and oxygen moving to our organs. Have you ever pumped up a ball? Same thing. Push... push... push... 100 times per minute. Do this until help arrives.

Be a BFF. Learn these acronyms. SAVE A LIFE.

TRANSPORT

You are planning a trip with your friends to Malaga. You see the following information online and decide it would be a great idea to use e-bikes to get around the city. Send a voice message to your friends with the suggestion and the most important details.

Malaga bikes

The City Council has invited private companies to provide electric bikes that you hire via a mobile phone app. These bikes are available at bike stations and in electric scooter parking areas around the city. To use one of these bikes, you need to do the following:

1. Download the appropriate app (e.g. Dott) and register as a user.
2. Locate an electric bike near you to hire.
3. Follow the instructions on the app to use the bike.

Costs

In early 2023, the costs of hiring an electric bike available via an app were: €0.29 per minute or €4.99 per day or €29.99 a month. You select the period you want to pay for when you hire the bike.

Locations of electric bikes

There are around 20 bike stations in the city centre and numerous scooter parking areas. You will also find the bikes at random places around the city – check the app for exact locations.
