CANDIDATE A

Monologue 10 marks

You have five minutes to prepare the task and another five minutes to tell your partner about the topic .You can take some notes to help you out during the talk, but only as a reference

"The first wealth is health." Ralph Waldo Emerson

- To what extend do you agree with the statement above?
- Do you consider yourself an affluent person in any sense?
- What things could you NOT do without?

Dialogue 15 marks

You have five minutes to prepare the task and ten minutes to speak and interact with your partner. You can take some notes to help you out during the conversation, but only as a reference.

You are organizing an 8-week English course with your partner for the summer in your city. Discuss the following and try to come to an agreement:

- The people you want to address the course. (retired people).
- Your teachers' professional background (no experience required).
- You prefer to hire a teacher from the USA.

CANDIDATE B

Monologue 10 marks

You have five minutes to prepare the task and another five minutes to tell your partner about the topic. You can take some notes to help you out during the talk, but only as a reference

"No man should live where he can hear his neighbor's dog bark."

- Are all noises equally disturbing? What do you thinkg about the statement above?
- Speak about noises that drive you mad. How do cope with them?
- How do you address noisy people around you?

Dialogue 15 marks

You have five minutes to prepare the task and ten minutes to speak and interact with your partner. You can take some notes to help you out during the conversation, but only as a reference.

You are organizing an 8-week English course with your partner for the summer in your city. Discuss the following and try to come to an agreement:

- The people you want to address the course. (unemployed people)
- Your teachers' professional background (at least 10 years of experience)
- You prefer to hire a teacher from the UK.