You must write TWO compositions. The task in PART 1 is compulsory. In PART 2, choose either task A or B and, on the cover sheet, clearly indicate which task you have chosen. Make sure that you follow the instructions for each task carefully and include all the information required. Use your own words as far as possible, as marks cannot be given for the parts of your writing which are copied from the task instructions.

PART 1

Write 130 words approx. on the following task:

Read the extract below from a social sciences magazine:

“The Internet has not been a force for good. It has divided the world into haves and have nots (the rich world is further removed from places which have poor internet connection). It excludes the elderly who may be scared to use it. It is killing libraries (and jobs).”

Do you agree? Can you prove us wrong? Write an article in which you defend the Internet as a force for good. The winning article will be published in our magazine and will receive a prize of 500 euros.

Write your article.

PART 2

Write 220 words approx. on ONE of the following tasks:

A. There are plans to demolish a building in your town and to build a residential complex in its place. You decide to write a proposal to the Town Hall explaining why the building should be preserved and suggesting ways it could be used by local people.

Write your proposal.

B. You have had a discussion in class about arts education. Write an essay for your teacher giving your opinions on the statement below:

“Some people believe it’s essential that young people study artistic subjects at school, but others think it’s a waste of time.”

Write your essay.
