Job interview

The Human Rights Department of the Council of Europe has recently published a post for an internship in Strasbourg (France). You have applied for it and have now been called for an interview. Be prepared to answer the interviewer's questions on your educational qualifications, personal qualities, experience, skills and interests, or any other you might be asked.

As to avail of this opportunity will be really important for your future career, try to emphasize your strong points and hide the weak ones.
