Formal Letter of Complaint

You decided to celebrate your birthday with a group of friends after seeing the advert for the restaurant below in your local newspaper. However, the experience was less than satisfactory and you decide to write a letter of complaint. You should detail at least two problems and make a suggestion as to how they can compensate you. The problems mentioned must be related to the features advertised (250 words).

Valentino's: This city-centre hot-spot has ample seating, including large red booths for bigger groups (up to 12 people). Go out for a night of fun at this club style restaurant and indulge in their handcrafted thin crust pizzas and fun fruity cocktails from their ever-changing drinks menu.
