An aging population and increased life expectancy mean that society in the near future will be far less youth-centred.

Talk about the repercussions of this change for social services like the health system, companies and shops and the future of society.

You have up to 5 minutes to prepare your talk. You can take notes or make a brief plan of what you are going to say. Talk to the examiners for about 3 – 4 minutes. You can use your notes during your talk but not read them out loud. At the end of your presentation, the examiners will ask you a couple of questions. Your production will be recorded.

THE MEDIA

“don't hate the media,
become the media
even if it means
going head-to-head
with people you know
at home,
at work,
at school,
in your family,
explaining
why the world is wrong”

Mainstream liberal media has been attacked in recent elections and referendums as a pillar of an establishment which can no longer be trusted.

Talk about how we get the news these days in the age of social media and what the future holds for the media.

You have up to 5 minutes to prepare your talk. You can take notes or make a brief plan of what you are going to say. Talk to the examiners for about 3 – 4 minutes. You can use your notes during your talk but not read them out loud. At the end of your presentation, the examiners will ask you a couple of questions. Your production will be recorded.
