TASK 1MARK

Write about 130-150 words following the instructions.
The recommended time for this task is 30 minutes.

You have read the following call on a website and have decided to participate:

IT'S TIME TO MAKE A STAND FOR YOUR FAVOURITE CAUSE

There are plenty of needy groups in this fast-changing, disruptive world we're living in. While governments seem to fail at meeting everyone's needs, individuals fall short of resources to take any action. How can we sow the seeds of change?

The Global League of Entrepreneurial Leaders has raised up to €100,000 ready to split into 5 equal cash donations for the winning nominees in their competition. Which cause do you think would better deserve one of these donations? Submit your nomination for your preferred charity or NGO to win one of the prizes, describing their goals and actions in general terms. Deadline ends 31st of December.

Write a nomination as a reference letter for your favourite charity to enter the competition, describing their goals and actions and justifying the reasons why it should win.

Use the space below to note down and organise your ideas.
These notes will not be marked.

OPTION A

People identify themselves better with the people of the same age in terms of values, ideals, ambitions, and cultural references.

The term generation gap was first coined in the 1960's by sociologists, when the younger generation seemed to go against everything their parents had previously believed in. Bridging the gap between different generations may become a challenge when there is scarce interaction across age barriers except at the nuclear family level.

Write an opinion essay about your views on the generation gap. Do you identify yourself with one generation? Which are its members' defining features? How does it compare and relate to others? Besides, provide possible ideas for a better understanding among people of different ages.

OPTION B

The "emptied" Spain has been in the spotlight for a few years. In the last century, a lack of prospects made town and village natives mass migrate to the main capitals. Recently, however, more and more urbanites have grown fed up with the city. Consequently, they are moving back to the country or to their hometowns.

You have been asked to write an article for a social research magazine on the pros and cons of living away from urban life. Compare job and leisure opportunities and analyze how homeworking and the internet might have changed things with respect to the past.

Use the space below to note down and organise your ideas.
These notes will not be marked.
