TASK 2

An acquaintance of yours is going to participate in an academic exchange programme in a foreign country where you have recently spent some time. Knowing about your experience in that country, he/she sends you this email asking you for advice. Write an email in reply, between 150 and 175 words long, sharing your own experience to help your acquaintance.

* If you haven't experienced such a stay abroad, you can make up your reply.

Hey there!

I am a bit overwhelmed because the placement I have finally been assigned happens to be in the country I had applied for as my fifth preference. I don't know it at all and have no idea what to expect from life there. I'm fearful of communication problems or being misunderstood.

What tips can you give me? Do you think I will adjust well there and is there anything I should pay special attention to?

Thank you very much for any help and recommendations you can spare!

R.

A series of horizontal dashed lines for writing.
