TASK 3

THE PERILS OF HEAVY HANDBAGS AND BULGING BAGS

You will hear a radio interview with a physiotherapist recommending tips on posture to avoid injuries. For statements 1 to 10, fill in the gap with the word/s you hear (max. 2 words). Number 0 is an example. You will get 1 point per correct answer. You will hear the recording TWICE.

ANSWER
0. So it's basically [ 0 ... ] , essentially. So if you pull that shoulder blade back and engage the muscles between the two shoulder blades, that's your base of support.	SLOUCHING	✓
1. People should be strong enough to [ 1 ... ] that load.
2. Strength in your muscles to tolerate something that you have to do outside of your normal comfort zone of movement that helps [ 2 ... ] against these niggles.
3. But if you're not strong enough and then you suddenly have to do it out of [ 3 ... ] for two or three hours, that's where the problem comes.
4. The niggle comes from what people are [ 4 ... ] .
5. Lifting bags at an awkward [ 5 ... ] can cause pain in the shoulder as well.
6. The tendency with those straps is that because they're longer, that weight might be supported by your [ 6 ... ] .
7. That's why the [ 7 ... ] backpack tends to work.
8. So it's about that distribution of load in that position. Do you get used to that [ 8 ... ] position?
9. So if you have that problem, if you've developed it and now you have a [ 9 ... ] moment because you realize that's probably because of the bag I'm carrying, how can you address it?
10. Are there times when you maybe [ 10 ... ] for lunch and you could even have like a little small bag and work that you just run out with your keys and your phone in rather than bringing everything with you every single time you go?
