CHOOSE ONE of the following options (A or B).

A You have read the following newspaper article on the chaotic state of Spanish tourism nowadays. Write an article, giving your opinion on the current situation.

Summer could not have come soon enough for the coastal towns on the Spanish Mediterranean, which are brimming with young travelers from Britain, Germany, France and Russia in search of the experience of their lives, a rite of passage.

By day, they flock to the main beaches and by night they crowd the streets lined with clubs called Londoner, Hot Spot or Zoo. Magaluf, in Majorca, is one of such destinations.

As dawn breaks on another sizzling summer's day in Majorca, thousands of British teenagers stumble out of a huge dance club at 4am and spill into a seedy street full of neon-lit bars, lap-dancing joints and cheap kebab takeaways.

It has been a long night in the holiday resort of Magaluf and the main strip, called Punta Ballena, still pulsates to the deafening boom-de-boom music that started well before midnight.

B You have read a newspaper article entitled 'Can Students Have Too Much Tech?' Write a letter to the editor giving your opinion on the topic.

....mounting evidence shows that showering students, especially those from struggling families, with networked devices will not shrink the class divide in education. If anything, it will widen it.

The local town council has proposed demolishing a beloved but dilapidated building in the town centre to build a new state-of-the-art convention centre. You are in favour of having a convention centre but you disagree entirely with knocking down the original building, as it is part of the cultural heritage and identity of your town.

Write a letter to the council explaining your views as well as asking for a written reply from the councillor in charge of the project.

Try to include as much detail as possible.
