You have just seen this post by a music expert in a blog:

The World Music Festival held its fourth edition on 11, 12 and 13 July 2019. Reportedly reducing capacity by 10,000, the layout had been thought through to encourage the feeling of space in a conveniently compact environment. However, the hot temperatures were once more a great inconvenience. Prices were apparently higher on this edition, especially drinks, and the newly coined "Welcome Party" was not included on the regular ticket price. Nevertheless, the festival seems to have become a deep-rooted annual tradition with increased rates of popularity every year.

Write a blog post in response to the one above giving your personal opinion after having attended this musical festival.

Use the space below to note down and organise your ideas.
These notes will not be marked.

TASK 2

According to an analysis conducted by University College London (UCL) and published in the journal Work, Employment and Society, "Gender norms remain strong when it comes to household chores". The study discovered that women do approximately 16 hours of household chores every week while men do closer to six.
