TEST 2

CIRCULAR ECONOMY

In contrast to the traditional linear economy which has a “take, make, dispose” model of production and ownership, the circular economy is based on the principles of usage of goods without owning them, reusing and sharing.

Talk about:

- The benefits of the circular economy for a more sustainable economic model.
- The future implications of this type of economy.

TEST 4

CULTURAL GLOBALIZATION

© smackslide.com

Cultural globalization, facilitated by new technologies and the rise in international travel, has led to an increasing integration between the different cultures in the world. The so-called western lifestyle is creating a more homogeneous world and many cultural identities are struggling to survive.

Talk about:

- The effects of cross-cultural exchanges and their implications for society.
- How increasing uniformity is affecting cultural and linguistic diversity.

You have up to 5 minutes to prepare your talk. You can take notes or make a brief plan of what you are going to say. Talk to the examiners for about 3 – 4 minutes. You can use your notes during your talk, but you cannot read them aloud. Your production will be recorded.

TEST 1

HOUSING FIRST

©housingfirsteurope.eu

In 2007 Finland introduced a revolutionary scheme called “Housing First” (HF), consisting in providing a permanent and unconditional home for the homeless as a first step towards social and economic integration. Since then Finland is the only EU country where homelessness has been falling.

Share your ideas on the subject with your partner(s). Express and justify your opinions while referring to the following:

- This model of tackling homelessness compared to providing temporary accommodation in night shelters.
- Possible difficulties that may arise when trying to implement this HF scheme.

You have 2 minutes for individual preparation. Then talk to your partner(s) for 3 to 4 minutes if there are two candidates or for 5 to 6 minutes if there are three. Your production will be recorded.
